Both stories are about girls who move to the United States and have to adapt to American culture. At the same time, they still appreciate the unique aspects of their own culture. Imagine there is a student who is going to move to Monrovia from another country tomorrow. What advice do you have for him or her? Write it in a letter.

Dear _____,

I am so excited that you are moving to Monrovia! My advice for fitting in at Santa Fe Middle School is

You also want to stay true to who you are. So that you still stay connected to your culture, I suggest that you
